

Please do not revoke the State of New Jersey's "Do Not Call Law." I finally have some protection against those telemarketers, fundraisers, and others who consistently invade my privacy. The five to ten calls a day have been reduced to one per week (on the average). The law works and provides a better quality of life for the citizens of the State of New Jersey.

Russell Davis